

Dear Ginny

*I was there that day you made the choice
To follow false hope and not my voice*

*I watched and wept as you lay in fear
And gave up the child I held so dear*

*I saw you pick up the bondage chains
That shackled your life to Satan's pain*

*Darkness and numbness, his icy hand
Start shaping your life, not as God planned*

The shame and regret, anger, and fear Engulfing your heart, there is no cheer

*My daughter, listen, it's time the chains
Fall from your life and loose the pain*

*Forgiveness I give, there is no price
My cross has crushed his hand of ice*

*Walk from his darkness, into my light
My soft gentle voice will lead you right*

*Your beautiful scars will always be
The proof that my light will shine through thee*

*Walk now in fullness, peace, joy, and love
I love you my child, signed Jesus above*
